Steve Coburn was born and raised in Salina, Kansas and graduated from Salina South High School. He attended Kansas State University and received a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree with an emphasis in Ceramics and a Bachelor of Science Degree in Art Education. Steve taught high school for one year and then became a full time potter. He sells his work at art shows in the central United States and through several galleries and shops around the country, and participates in more at least 15 art shows a year. All the work is thrown on a potters wheel and fired in a gas kiln to cone 10, and is oven dishwasher and microwave safe.
